ARRIVAL IN LIMA, VISIT TO THE MAGIC WATER CIRCUIT AND DINNER SHOW

Upon arrival at the Lima's Jorge Chavez Airport, our driver and guide will be waiting for you and transfer to your chosen hotel in Miraflores, the best place to stay at the Lima city. Depending on the arrival time, you may rest or go for a walk. At 1800 p.m. we will pick you up to begin the by night tour; starting with the visit Parque de la Reserva, where the largest set of colored fountains in the world are located. You will have time to tour the famous Magic Water Circuit and, of course, to admire the beautiful spectacle that is projected on the main fountain, with a play of lights, colors and music. At the end of the visit we will take you to an exquisite restaurant, so you can enjoy a dinner with authentic Peruvian flavors, along with a folkloric show. After that we will return to your hotel.

CITY TOUR AND DINNER AT THE HUACA PUCLLANA

After breakfast we will pick you up at your hotel for a city tour of Lima; its historic center will surprise you with its beautiful buildings and, we will arrive at the Plaza de Armas, to visit the Cathedral, built between 1542 and 1622. Later we will visit Casa Aliaga, a residence built in the sixteenth century for the family of Captain Jerónimo de Aliaga. Many centuries have passed, but in this place the family still lives, who have decided to open part of their house to the general public, to share with them the history. Then we will visit the Larco Museum, built inside a mansion built during the viceroyalty on a pre-Columbian pyramid of the seventh century. In it you can see an exhibition of gold and silver pieces, in addition to the famous collection of erotic art that characterizes it. At the end of the city tour we will take you back to your hotel, so that you can rest, because at night we will pick you up again to take you to dinner at the huaca Pucllana restaurant. Immersed in the residential neighborhood of Miraflores, this archaeological complex was built more than 1,500 years ago and you can enjoy its beautiful views while tasting exquisite dishes of Creole cuisine. Once dinner is over we will take you back to your hotel.

Our excursion begins with a panoramic view of the "Pucllana Pyramid", built in the fourth century AD and considered "sacred town" by the Incas. Afterwards we'll head 30 Km south of Lima to the ORACLE OF PACHACAMAC, the visit to the splendid Citadel of Pachacamac, Sanctuary of the God Pachacamac, creator of the Universe for the ancient Andean peoples, will lead you to the believes of the Quechua race. The citadel comprises temples, pyramids and palaces. Highlights include the Temple of the Sun, the Temple of Pachacamac, the "Acllahuasi" or Palace of the Virgins of the Sun, among others. The whole place was considered sacred and part of the mystical axis of the world; returning you visit an "hacienda", of Peruvian Paso Horse. Our tour takes a break at the D' Paso, located in Mamacona. In its beautiful gardens, an Amazon or a Chalán will invite you to know the world of the Peruvian Paso horse with the stories of this noble animal. You will enjoy a Pisco Sour cocktail at the start of the exhibition. The show presents the various stages of preparation and care of this Peruvian breed. Riders will surprise you with the dominance of this horses. The high moment of the show is when the formation of Chalanés and the Amazons dances the Marinera. After the show the table is served with a buffet lunch.

At the agreed time, according to the departure of your flight, we will transfer to the Jorge Chávez International Airport in order to take your flight to home, or the next step of your journey.

WAYNA PICCHU

Day 1

LIMA - CUSCO

Transfer to the airport; arrival meeting with your guide and transfer to the hotel. After the introduction lecture the rest of then day is free for leisure and to acclimate. This is our most popular trek and offers visitors the most economical method to trek the Inca Trail to Machu Picchu. A pool service is basically a group that you can just join. You'll be trekking with like-minded hikers from all over the world, a great chance to meet new friends and travel companions. The Inca Trail is Peru's best known hike and perhaps in the World too. This 43km trek combines visits to archaeological sites, amazing mountain scenery and lush cloud forest rich in native plants such as

Day 2

Day 1 KM 82- WAYLLABAMBA

At 8:00 we will pick you up from the hotel and transfer to Piskacuchu (2700m), a small community located at 82 KM along the railroad from Cusco to Machu Picchu. Hikers cross the Vilcanota River and follow the trail to the right as it climbs steeply up from the river. After passing the village of Miskay, the ruins of the Inca hill fort of Huillca Raccay come into view high above the mouth of the river Cusichaca. It is a simple descent down to the Cusichaca River; there are great views of the Urubamba Range and the peak of the Mt. Veronica. You'll also get a great view over the extensive Inca ruins of Llactapata. This is the last place along the trek that you can buy snacks and drinks. Camp is set here.

Day 3

WAYLLABAMBA-PACAMAYO

At 6:00 you will leave Wayllabamba behind and begin the most difficult part of the trek. Following the left bank of the Llulluchayoc River for about 1 hour brings you to 'Tres Piedras' and a small bridge over the Huayruru river. A further three hours trek through steepening woods and increasingly spectacular terrain brings you to the tree line and a meadow known as Llulluchapampa (3,680m). It is another 1½ hours climb to the first and highest pass of the trail the Huarmihuañusca Pass at 4,200m. Once in the top hikers can celebrate having completed the most difficult section of the trail. The descent from the pass is steep although not difficult, following the trail on the left side of the valley to the valley floor and to the 2nd night's campsite at Pacamayo (3,600m).

Day 4

PACAMAYO-WIÑAY HUAYNA

This day is the longest but also the most impressive and most interesting due to the many Inca ruins that we will visit along the way. From the campsite at Pacamayo it takes about an hour to climb up to the ruins of Runkuracay (3800m). Another 45 minute hike will bring you to the top of the second pass: Abra de Runkuracay (4,000m). At last you'll feel that you are walking along the trail of the Incas with paving, for the most part, being original. This section of the trail, up till the 3rd pass, is particularly beautiful as the path crosses high stone embankments and skirts deep precipices. A few minutes after the pass is Phuyupatamarca, the most impressive Inca ruin so far. Campsite is set here.

Day 5

WIÑAY HUAYNA - MACHU PICCHU

We are back on the trail at 5.15am to get to Machu Picchu before sunrise. The sky starts getting light by 5:30am and the first rays of the sun hits Machu Picchu at about 7:00am. The trail contours a mountainside and drops into cloudforest before coming to an almost vertical flight of 50 steps leading up to the final pass at Inti Punku (Sun Gate). From this point you will be able to see the sunrise over Machu Picchu which is spread out before, an unforgettable experience. With just your backpack on the group will re-enter the ruins with the same guide for a complete tour of the major sectors. The tour takes about 2 hours so by about 10:30 you'll have free time to explore the ruins alone. Return by train to Cusco at 16:30.

Day 6

CUSCO - LIMA

Breakfast. Free morning in Cusco for leisure. At proper time transfer to Cusco airport to board your return flight to Lima. Upon your arrival, international connection or transfer to your hotel.

OPTIONAL:

Train or bus journey to the Lake Titicaca.

MOST FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW DIFFICULT IS THE TRAIL The Inca Trail is considered a moderate hike. It's not a technical hike but there are a lot of Inca staircases to walk up and down, and the altitude may affect some individuals. We recommend purchasing a wooden walking stick while in Peru as it will help with your balance and reduce the load on your knees.

Faq's

IS ALTITUDE SICKNES COMMON?

It's impossible to predict wh will be affected by altitud Your ability to adapt to hig altitude is determined by yo genetic makeup and has litt to do with fitness or healt Most people will have n problems as long as they tak the time to acclimatiz properly. A full day spent Cuzco (3249m), taking it ea and drinking plenty of water, usually enough for mo people. The highest point yo will reach while hiking th Inca Trail is 4200 meters.
